- The best COMPLETE library edition.
 The chief aim of this publication was, by an exhaustive effort, to collect the whole of Burns's Poems and Correspondence, and by presenting these in the most attractive shape, showing the Author's text with critical exactness, unabridged and untampered with, and recording the numerous and interesting variations in his Manuscripts and several authorized editions, to produce an edition of the Poet that should leave little in the shape of new biographical facts or fresh literary material to be gleaned and supplemented by others.

No better testimony to the interest and merit of these memoirs can be adduced than the fact that for long they were attributed to Defoe. They are now, however, believed to be genuine memoirs with which Defoe had nothing whatever to do. Such competent authorities as Lord Stanhope and Dr. John Hill Burton have gratefully acknowledged their importance as historical evidence on a period for which trustworthy evidence is scarce.

This is considered by all competent critics to be the best of all the English translations of the great Spanish romance. These works, published during the forties and fifties, have for half a century maintained their place in the appreciation of the public, and the continued demand for and scarcity of the original editions is a proof of their pre-eminent position among memoirs of this character.

They cover a period commencing with the reign of James I. and extending to the time of George III., forming a continuous narrative written with vivacity and interest, and are an important contribution to the history of England.

The present is the first uniform illustrated edition of Jesse's Works, and the utmost care has been given to their preparation. Each volume is illustrated with etchings and photo-gravures, the subjects for which have been carefully selected, all especially made for this edition and printed on Japanese paper.

It was Mr. Morris's intention to print the full series of his works at the Kelmscott Press, but his death on October 3rd, 1896, led to the closing of the Press in March, 1898, before the project was completed. The wood-blocks for the initials and other ornaments designed by Mr. Morris were presented at this time to the British Museum, the type alone being reserved for future use by the Trustees.

With the exception of five lectures, these volumes are all that have been printed with Kelmscott type since the Press was closed.

The edition was strictly limited to 315 copies, all of which were subscribed for before publication.

HALLIWELL. 16 vols., folio, with 133 plates and numerous illustrations by F. W. Fairholt; half bound, UNCUT, with an autograph letter of Halliwell's on the progress of his work inserted. £75. 1853-65

This magnificent edition of Shakespeare was limited to 150 copies. Mr. Halliwell devoted to it the best efforts of his life, his object being to bring together everything from those relics of the Elizabethan age which have descended to the present time, that had a bearing upon or illustrated the works of our great national poet. In graphic illustrations he had the assistance of that eminent antiquary, Mr. Fairholt. Each play is accompanied by philological and historical notes, and the tales from which Shakespeare is known or supposed to have drawn his plots and delineations of character.

—— THE SAME. EDITION DE LUXE. Edited by DR.
ALDIS WRIGHT. The set in 40 vols., imperial 8vo; cloth. £12. 1891-94

"As a rule an édition de luxe suggests something for show rather than for use; this edition is an exception, and is as useful as it is beautiful. When it was first announced we were inclined to think—having the nine-volume edition before us—that students would be fully satisfied with, and, indeed, for use might prefer the ordinary edition. Having now examined the first four volumes of this fine issue, we believe that in a library containing both editions it will be the édition de luxe that will be most in use. A separate volume for each play, and that volume, though much taller and broader, yet light enough to be used as a 'handy' volume, must inevitably obtain the preference."—The Athenæum, December 2nd, 1893.

—— WORKS. A new LIBRARY EDITION, now being issued by the Vale Press. Each volume 16s. 1899-1903

In monthly volumes, each being a separate play. Subscriptions can only be received for the complete set of 39 vols.—The stage directions from the early quartos and folios are introduced.

etc., by Shakspeare Scholars, issued under the superintendence of Dr. F. J.
FURNIVALL, Camb., founder and director of the New Shakspeare Society, bound. £15. 1885-91

Separate volumes are sold at 10s. 6d. each.

Every genuine student of Shakespeare has always desired to own those Quartos of his master's Plays and Poems which are the necessary foundations of the text of so many of his greatest productions in the first three periods of his work. Not only in importance next to the FIRST FOLIO, but even above it, for some Plays, and for all the Poems, stand the first or second QUARTOS, from which, or completed copies of which, certain Plays in that Folio were printed; and every true and faithful worker at Shakespeare's text must want to have in his own hand, under his own eye, and as his own, trustworthy facsimiles of these truest representations of the poet's own manuscript. Till now this has been practically impossible.

A set of these facsimiles should be in every Public Library.

HAZLITT (WILLIAM CAREW). SHAKESPEARE. 8vo; cloth. 7s. 6d. 1902

This volume deals with all the difficult and perplexing problems, which have arisen, and exist, in connection with the life and productions of Shakespeare—the history of the “Sonnets,” the relations between Shakespeare and Bacon, those between the former and his family, the deer-stealing affair, and the final removal to London—and it unavoidably conflicts at several points with the statements and opinions of others. After all the enthusiasm for the version of Montaigne by John Florio, evidence is adduced that Shakespeare did not resort to it, at all events at first; and this is merely one instance among many, where the new Essay, which is not a regular Biography, but rather a Biographical Excursion, endeavours to place the private and professional career of our national poet on a new footing in considerable measure by the collation of scattered facts and allusions, and the presentment of many circumstances from fresh points of view.

This interesting and valuable antiquarian work cost the enterprising publisher more than twenty years of undeviating labour and many thousand pounds. Every rare old print or drawing, illustrative of London topography, which he could discover, by the most active and diligent research, was made subservient to his purpose; and of many ancient buildings the engravings contained in these volumes are now the only known records. What adds considerably to the value of the work is that the letterpress gives extracts from parish registers and munimental documents not easily accessible elsewhere.

In regard to the reproduction of the plates and text, "The Builder" writes: "The plates have been reproduced by photogravure, they have very much the look of the originals, and both engravings and text are reproduced on the large and sumptuous scale of the original with the fine type and wide margins. A type to meet the original has been cast for the letterpress. The reproductions of the engravings are admirable, and, in fact, except from the book-collector's point of view, the possessing of the New Edition of Adam's work will be equivalent to the possessing of the original."

A trustworthy and authoritative work.

"Mr. Bevan shows himself complete master of his subject, and omits, so far as we know, no available source of information. At the same time, what is remarkable in a very learned man, his style has remained fresh and striking, and his independence of thought has not suffered from the mass of opinions which he has been obliged to gather and sift . . . Never has the policy of Antiochus Epiphanes in Palestine been better or more fairly treated. Never have the Maccabees been more strictly reduced to their true proportions. Such writing as this makes us hail in Mr. Bevan the appearance of a new historian fit to stand beside the best of the French or German specialists."—Athenaeum.

—— THE SAME. Impl. 4to, JAPANESE VELLUM, with an extra set of the full-page illustrations ; cloth. £15 15s. 1902

The aim of the present work is to be not so much a biography as a critical study. Leslie's well-known "Life of Constable" was so excellently composed, that so far as Constable's personal history is concerned, but little can be added to or taken from it, even after the lapse of more than half a century. Nowadays, however, Constable's domestic affairs are hardly as interesting to us as they were to his friends sixty years ago ; while the history and quality and genuineness of his pictures, his theory and practice of painting, and the causes, nature, and results of the modern naturalistic movement of which he was the pioneer, are constantly discussed.

Prefatory matter, 8 pages; Introduction, 44 pages; Interleaves, 158 pages; total, 210 pages. These are bound up with one photogravure title-page and the 99 colotype facsimile prints of the original drawings in the British Museum.

"The thanks of all students of Florentine art are due to Mr. Colvin for having once and for all defined, not only the real nature of these drawings and engravings, but also the character of Finiguerra as an artist, about whom has grown up so vast a mass of obsolete and erroneous literature. Not less admirable are the facsimiles of the Chronicle, than which nothing could be better done. Now charming, now naive, decorative or amusing, these drawings illustrate, in a hundred different ways, the popular mind and the historical notions of the 'Mercato' of Florence during the middle of the fifteenth century."—Saturday Review.

———— THE SAME. 3 vols., impl. 8vo, LARGE PAPER; vellum, gilt top, UNCUT. £6 6s. 1901

No complete or in any way adequate translation, either in verse or prose, of the greatest of Persian lyrists has before appeared; and this is somewhat remarkable, as Hafiz is considered, by those who are best qualified to judge, worthy to rank among the sovereign poets of the world. The reason was, however, sufficiently evident; the extreme difficulty of the task and the rarity of the peculiar qualifications requisite for the successful reproduction in English of so subtle and characteristic a work. Mr. John Payne, who is acknowledged to be without a rival in the art of translation and who was for some years engaged upon the undertaking, has in this work completed a metrical version of the collected poems (or Divan) of the Shirazi master.

The issue was limited to 750 copies, of which 75 were on large paper.

— THE SAME. LARGE PAPER, with duplicate plates on INDIA PAPER. £5 5s. 1901

Few living artists have so strong a claim as Professor H. von Herkomer on the attention of all people who are interested in the affairs of the world of art, and fewer still can show such a record of work brilliantly carried out.

In this book he is dealt with both as a personality and as an artist. The story of his life is told with all necessary elaboration, and an analysis of his curiously complex character attempted. A full description of his numerous phases is given, while his paintings are amply illustrated, and his many-sidedness demonstrated by numerous examples of his excursions into other branches of craftsmanship. The fact that he has put at the disposal of the author all necessary material, and has consented to the publication of many interesting details about his life, adds to the value and importance of the book.

HOGARTH (WILLIAM). By AUSTIN DOBSON. With an Introduction on Hogarth's Workmanship by SIR WALTER ARMSTRONG. Impl. 4to, with 77 plates in photogravure and facsimile; cloth gilt, gilt top. £5 5s.

Hitherto William Hogarth has been regarded in great measure as an engraver and a pictorial moralist, characteristics which he retains, and will continue to retain. But with the unprecedented development of the graphic arts, and the prevalence of a milder method in satire, popular interest in these aspects of his achievement has, for the moment, somewhat abated. On the other hand, his reputation, as an artist, has enormously increased with fuller knowledge of his work. It is now recognized, without a doubt, that, far from being the indifferent "dauber" the hostile and prejudiced critics of his day declared him to be, he was, at his best, a magnificent craftsman, worthy to rank in all respects with the greatest of his contemporaries of the brush.

This and "The Wallace Collection" form the two most sumptuous art works of recent years.

The work consists of a general introduction by Monsieur Emile Molinier, of a notice on each style and each series of the works of art, and of substantial monographs on every subject of art reproduced.

Only 200 numbered copies have been printed.

The event of the year 1901, from the point of view of decorative art, has been the opening in the Musée du Louvre of new galleries specially dedicated to articles of furniture till then preserved in the Garde meuble national, and in different State administrations. If to these are added those still found in different national palaces, and in private collections, nearly the whole set of styles known by the name of Louis XIV., of Louis XV., and of Louis XVI., with the subdivisions they comprise, will have been represented.

MONKHOUSE (COSMO). A HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION OF CHINESE PORCELAIN. With Notes by S. W. BUSHELL. Royal 8vo, with 24 coloured plates and 54 figures; cloth. £2 2s. 1901

"Chinese porcelain has always attracted artists. Jules Jacquemart, the prince of etchers, lavished no little skill in the many illustrations which he supplied for his brother Albert's interesting but somewhat discursive works on the subject. Mr. Whistler, in his drawings made for Sir Henry Thompson's 'Catalogue of Blue and White Porcelain,' conveys, with the free stroke of his brush, the very touch and spirit of the original decorator. Mr. Louis Prang, in his turn, has devoted infinite pains to the composition of the sumptuous chromo-lithographs of pieces in the Walters' Collection at Baltimore, which Mr. Monkhouse notices as 'almost perfect.' Yet, perhaps, the newer methods of colour process in the plates which follow will be found to give a touch of actuality which has hitherto been wanting."—Preface.

Only 100 copies of this édition de luxe have been printed. The "Athenæum" of May 17th, 1902, in an article on this book says: "The book has been adapted to the last French variorum so far as possible, and errors in the former English versions have been rectified. The account of the Essayist has been considerably amplified, and instead of the sixteen letters given in 1877 there are now THIRTY-FIVE. A feature in the present undertaking is the substitution for the English colloquial equivalents, or rather supposed equivalents, of the great Frenchman's language, of the words which he actually uses, or the sense which he actually intends to convey."

NORDENSKIÖLD (A. E.). [VOL. I.] FACSIMILE ATLAS TO THE EARLY HISTORY OF CARTOGRAPHY, with Reproductions of the most important Maps printed in the fifteenth and sixteenth Centuries. With English Text rendered from the Swedish by EKELOF and CLEMENTS R.
MARKHAM. Royal folio, with 51 large maps and 84 of somewhat smaller size printed in the letterpress, reproducing the rarest and most important maps which were printed in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries ; half morocco (published at £10 10s.). £5 5s. Stockholm, 1889

An admirably scientific work, which may be regarded as almost exhaustive of the subject. Jomard and Santarem might be said to have produced an imperfect first volume of an Illustrated History of Cartography treating irregularly upon the manuscript sources ; Nordenskiöld's atlas might be called the complete second volume dealing with the entire printed or engraved material. It is indispensable as furnishing by far the best apparatus for studying the growth of geographical science, and the gradual enlargement of knowledge with regard to the surface of the globe.

NORDENSKIÖLD (A. E.). [VOL. II.] PERIPLUS, an Essay on the early History of Charts and Sailing-Directions. Translated from the Swedish Original by FRANCIS A. BATHER, with Numerous Reproductions of old Charts and Maps. Royal folio, with 60 large maps apart from the text, and 100 maps of smaller size printed in the text; half morocco (published at £10 10s.). £5 5s. Stockholm, 1897

This second volume deals with the earlier and mainly unprinted portion of the subject of Cartography, and gives for the first time in literature a comprehensive view of the early MS. maps and Portulani, carried through the Middle Ages and ending, as a rule, with the sixteenth century.

—— The above two works taken together, £10. 1889-97

"Nearly thirty years have elapsed since the third edition of the 'History of Lace' was published. As it is still the classical work on the subject, and many developments in the art have taken place since 1875, it seemed desirable that a new and revised edition should be brought out. The present Revisers have fully felt the responsibility of correcting anything the late Mrs. Palliser wrote; they have therefore altered as little of the text as possible, except where modern research has shown a statement to be faulty."—Preface.

"Mr. W. E. Henley, who is responsible for the text, will keep as close to the First Folio (1623) as he can, and will trust to common sense and a becoming reverence for his Author for the rest. There will be no mass of commentary to mar the plain simplicity of the general design. Such notes as are given will be mainly glossarial, and set forth unobtrusively at the page's foot. The text will thus be shown in such simplicity and clearness that it is hoped this edition may become pre-eminently the SHAKESPEARE of all them that love, not to dispute about readings, but to read."—Publisher's Prospectus.

TURNER. By SIR WALTER ARMSTRONG. 2 vols., folio, with 103 fine photogravures; cloth. £8 8s. 1902

— THE SAME. EDITION DE LUXE, BEAUTIFULLY PRINTED ON JAPANESE VELLUM, 2 vols., folio, with a portfolio containing a duplicate set of the plates; cloth. £15. 1902

"It would be a poor compliment to Sir Walter Armstrong merely to say that his magnificent volume is the best account of Turner that has yet been given to the world. Many artists have been unfortunate in their early biographers, and those who have excited controversy have commonly been fought over by critics possessed of more zeal than knowledge. If we leave out of account the splendid mausoleum erected to his memory by Ruskin—a mausoleum, indeed, but no more durable than Aladdin's palace—Turner has been no exception to this rule. What was wanted was an authoritative critic who should go over the whole ground, who should cleverly piece together the scanty details which are all that can now be collected of Turner's biography, and who should cover the vast range of Turner's production, pictures, drawings, and engravings, tracing their relations to each other and to the works of other men, and judging them with sanity and large experience. These conditions have been remarkably fulfilled in the fine volumes before us."—Times.

The Wallace Collection, now permanently located at Hertford House, London, is deservedly the most widely celebrated of all the private collections of Europe. During the past century three generations of collectors of the most refined taste and discernment, provided with ample fortune, and assisted by experts of unquestioned ability, devoted themselves to gathering together the choicest objects that could be obtained from the art and bric-à-brac storehouses of the entire world.

These illustrations, which have been selected with great care, will include pictures by Boucher, Fragonard, Greuze, Lancret, Nattier, Pater, Watteau and De Troy, representing French art of the eighteenth century; by Reynolds, Gainsborough, Romney, Hoppner and Lawrence for English art of the same period. Couture, Ziem, Delacroix,

Delaroche, Isabey, Corot and Meissonier will represent French art of the nineteenth century, and works of later English painters—Stanfield, Bonington, Wilkie, and Morland—will also be reproduced; while a very important display of Dutch art will be found in the works of Hobbema, Cuyp, Franz Hals, Rembrandt, Metsu, and Van de Velde, and of Flemish art in those of Van Dyck and Rubens. An important section will be devoted to the Italian and Spanish Schools.

The text, which is prepared by Mr. A. G. Temple, Director of the Guildhall Gallery, consists of the following divisions:

1. A general introduction, giving a résumé of the history of the formation of the Wallace Collection.
2. A review of each School of Painting represented in the Collection.
3. Historical, critical, and descriptive notes of the work of art reproduced.
4. A complete list of the pictures in the Collection.

The edition is limited to 250 numbered copies, including those for presentation.

It is proposed that this work shall be followed by another of the same size and in the same style, devoted to furniture, tapestry, falence and porcelain, armour, etc. Each volume will, however, be entirely independent of the other.

WARWICK (COUNTESS OF). AN OLD ENGLISH GARDEN. Folio, with 26 beautiful photogravure plates of Lady Warwick's celebrated Garden at Easton Lodge, Essex, sumptuously printed on handmade paper; cloth gilt, gilt top. £2 10s. 1898

Only 350 copies were printed.

The Countess invests her flowers and gardens with emblematical sentiments that savour of old days, and illustrates them by very happily selected quotations from the poets. In addition, the work has a wider and more practical feature as it gives complete lists of all the flowers, ferns, deciduous and flowering shrubs, evergreens, and coniferae, which, under the best advice, her ladyship has introduced into her gardens.

The illustrations are beautiful specimens of photogravure, produced by the Swan Electric Engraving Company, from negatives specially taken for the work.
